Pre-War Cotswolds

Friday 17th to Sunday 19th July 2026

Please print off this form, fill it in and post it to the above address with your remittance, or alternatively e-mail the completed form to the above e-mail address and pay using one of the payment options listed below.

Name, address, tel. no., e-mail address: _____

Vehicle make, model and year: _____ Registration number: _____

(Entry is open to all veteran, Edwardian, vintage and pre-war cars, plus some post-war cars with pre-war styling, such as M.G. TD, TF, Morgan, Alvis TA21, Triumph Roadster, etc. If in doubt, please contact the VMR at the e-mail address above to open negotiations!) All will be welcome at the Gardeners Arms, Alderton (OS150 999334) on Thursday evening. If you would like to book a table for dinner, please call 01242/620257. The kitchen will be open until 8-30 p.m.

An Afternoon at the Classic Motor Hub, Ablington Friday 17th July

We will meet for lunch at the Hub (OS163 111093) around noon and spend the afternoon checking out the tremendous collection of cars for sale and driving the Hub's state of the art race simulator. In the evening we will head for our informal weekend reception at The Plough at Ford (OS163 088294). If you would like to book a table for dinner, please call 01386/584215. The kitchen will be open until 8-30 p.m. There will be NO charge for the Motor Hub visit.

The Saturday Tour, Saturday 18th July

A relaxed day, starting at 9 a.m. with an optional breakfast at Ye Olde Hobnails Inn, Little Washbourne (OS150 991332, on the B4077 about four miles west of the Toddington roundabout). The route will take in many of the very best locations that we have visited over the years. There will be a Vintage Picnic lunch at Colesbourne Park (order by submitting the separate Picnic Order Form) and in the afternoon we will amble back across the Cotswolds to conclude at The Plough at Ford.

The Sunday Navigation Rally and Scenic Tour, Sunday 19th July

Enjoy a day in the gorgeous Cotswold countryside with the Navigation Rally (not too serious!) and the parallel Scenic Tour. We will be starting at 8-30 a.m. with an optional breakfast at Ye Olde Hobnails Inn, Little Washbourne and we will visit a variety of places of historic or scenic interest, climbing the Cotswolds escarpment and heading east to a buffet Ploughman's lunch at the splendid Victorian Hook Norton brewery, with unlimited fresh ale available! (Drayman's Dinner, with our Hopped Cheddar & Old Hooky Cheese and Our Hand Carved Beer & Honey Gammon, accompanied with our Homemade Slaw, Pickled Onion, Cornichon, Red Onion Marmalade, and a Crusty Roll.) The day will conclude with cream teas, results and the presentation of our prestigious awards at Stanway House where Lord Wemyss has once again generously offered us a special viewing of his 300 ft gravity fountain.
